

Angela Mazerolle

Angela Mazerolle is the Superintendent of Pensions and the Superintendent of Insurance for the New Brunswick Financial and Consumer Services Commission. As Superintendent, she is responsible for the administration and enforcement of the New Brunswick Pension Benefits Act and the New Brunswick Insurance Act.

Angela has been involved for the past thirteen years in both the regulation of pension plans and policy development through her work with the Office of the Superintendent of Pensions. Angela played a key role in the development and legislative implementation of New Brunswick's Shared Risk Pension Plan model. She took on the Superintendent of Insurance role in January 2013.

Angela is the Chair of the Canadian Association of Pension Supervisory Authorities (CAPSA), an inter-jurisdictional association of pension regulators whose mission is to facilitate an efficient and effective pension regulatory system in Canada. She is also a member and Vice Chair of the General Insurance Statistical Agency (GISA), and an active member of the Canadian Council of Insurance Regulators (CCIR), the Canadian Insurance Services Regulatory Organizations (CISRO), the Joint Forum of Financial Market Regulators, the International Pension & Employee Benefits Lawyers Association (IPEBLA), the Canadian Bar Association, and the Law Society of New Brunswick.

Angela received her Bachelor of Commerce degree (Honours - Economics) from Mount Allison University and her Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Alberta.
