

Sarah A. Holden, PhD is Senior Director of Retirement and Investor Research at the Investment Company Institute (ICI). At the Institute, Ms. Holden conducts and oversees research on the U.S. retirement market, retirement and tax policy, and investor demographics and behavior. She is responsible for analysis of 401(k) plan participant activity using data collected in a collaborative effort with the Employee Benefit Research Institute (EBRI), known as the EBRI/ICI Participant-Directed Retirement Plan Data Collection Project. In addition, she analyzes the role of mutual funds in the retirement marketplace including defined contribution plan and IRA markets. She oversees The IRA Investor Database™, which contains data on more than 15 million IRA investors and allows analysis of IRA investors' contribution, rollover, conversion, and withdrawal activity, and asset allocation. She is also responsible for managing household survey research on a range of topics relevant to the fund industry and policy formation. Prior to joining the Institute, Ms. Holden worked as a staff economist in the Flow of Funds Section of the Research Division at the Federal Reserve Board. Ms. Holden graduated from Smith College, cum laude, and holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Michigan.
