

STEPHEN GLENFIELD - BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE

Stephen has held the position of General Manager of the South West Region of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) since July 1999.

APRA is the prudential regulator of the financial services industry and is responsible for supervising institutions holding approximately $4 trillion in assets for 23 million Australian depositors, policyholders and superannuation members.

The South West Region of APRA has offices in Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth and is responsible for supervising institutions in Victoria, Tasmania, South Australia, Western Australia and the Northern Territory.

Stephen is a qualified Chartered Accountant and has spent the last 27 years in financial services audit and regulation having commenced his career with Touche Ross and then KPMG before joining the Victorian Financial Institutions Commission in July 1992 where he was Head of Supervision prior to his move to APRA.