

Maggie Craig

Maggie is Head of Pension Policy, in Strategy and Competition at the FCA. She graduated from Glasgow University many (many many) years ago with a degree in English Language and Literature. She has spent much of her career in the industry working in a variety of marketing, technical, press & lobbying roles for companies including Standard Life and Aegon. Maggie joined ABI in 2007 as Director of Life and Savings and later became Director of Financial Conduct Regulation. She has been at FCA since January 2014 and during 2014 led the FCA work to introduce the new at retirement freedoms brought in by the 2014 Budget.
