

André TAPERNOUX

Mr. Taperoux is head Risk Management at Switzerland's Occupational Pension Supervisory Commission OPSC since July 2012.

He started his professional career as an actuary at a Swiss insurance company and then in 2002 joined an international consulting firm as a pension consultant, working as a Principal in Switzerland and the United States (2007-2009).

Mr. Taperoux holds a masters degree in Mathematics from the University of Zurich (1997), is a qualified Swiss pension actuary and a fully qualified member of the Swiss Actuarial Association. He regularly teaches at different colleges.