

Mark Boyle

Mark Boyle became non-executive chair of The Pensions Regulator in April 2014. Mark has a 30-year career spanning three separate spheres – banking, FTSE corporate and central government. He has a background in corporate finance, governance and stakeholder management.

Alongside his role at the regulator, Mark is also the independent non-executive chair of HM Land Registry.

Mark was previously director and chief operating officer at the Shareholder Executive, the specialist team based in the Department for Business, Innovation & Skills (BIS) that looked after a portfolio of government-owned businesses ranging from the Royal Mail to Ordnance Survey.

Before this he spent 12 years in senior commercial and corporate development roles with two major FTSE companies, Compass Group and Rentokil Initial. The first 15 years of his career was spent in banking with Lloyds Bank International and Kleinwort Benson.
